

Local agency earns distinction

Remax Realty Group, Fort Myers, recently earned distinction from leading independent research organizations for work in both residential and commercial real estate. REAL Trends 500 annual report ranked the agency 267th in residential closed sales volume nationally for 2010, according to agency CEO Michael J. Frye. It also placed 269th in RISMedia's Annual Power Broker Report & Survey, which identifies and ranks the top 300 largest U.S. residential real estate brokerage companies. The CoStar Group bestowed the agency the CoStar Power Broker Award, which spotlights U.S. firms and individual brokers who closed the highest number of commercial sales in 2010. The agency was compared to others in the region.
