

RE/MAX REALTY GROUP RANKS AMONG MOST PRODUCTIVE U.S. REAL ESTATE OFFICES

(Fort Myers, FL – May 10, 2010) – RE/MAX Realty Group, one of Fort Myers’ most prominent real estate companies, recently ranked among the most productive real estate offices in the U.S. based on an annual survey by RIS Media.

RE/MAX Realty Group ranked No. 265 nationally in the 2010 Power Broker Report based on the number of closed transactions the office recorded in 2009. The Power Broker Report ranks the top U.S. real estate offices based on transactions and sales volume.

“We’re so very proud of this accomplishment, our office and our agents who, despite a difficult real estate market, showed how determined they are to help local homebuyers and sellers,” said Michael J. Frye, CCIM/CEO. “The agents in our offices have the experience and training to succeed and are affiliated with RE/MAX, one of the most recognized and trusted real estate brands.”

According to the Power Broker Report, RE/MAX agents averaged 15.1 transactions last year – that means more homebuyers and sellers were helped by RE/MAX Realty Group agents. RE/MAX Realty Group has more than 135 agents in three offices located in Fort Myers.

In all, The 2010 Power Broker Report ranked 69 RE/MAX brokerages among their Top 300, representing 23% of all ranked brokerages. This showing placed RE/MAX 47% higher than its closest competitor.
